Starting Mother's Day, DuMA to open Sundays

DUBUQUE, Iowa, May 4, 2021 – The Dubuque Museum of Art will extend its open hours to include Sundays from 1:00-4:00PM through the summer, beginning Sunday, May 9, for Mother's Day.

Mother's Day promotions include free admission for moms, a $5 gift shop discount, and an interactive scavenger hunt for families.

The scavenger hunt is available on DBQArt.org and focuses on the exhibition 2100 and Counting: Looking at the Collection in the 21st Century. Nearly twenty living women artists are represented in that exhibition. Also on view is Janet Checker's Women of the Americas which celebrates the traditional dress of the women of North, Central, and South America.

Current exhibitions also include: I Am A Man, Olson's Art Through the Ages: A Midwestern Perspective, and the Dubuque Area K-12 Virtual Exhibition.

The museum is open Wednesdays through Saturdays from 10:00AM-4:00PM, and Sundays 1:00-4:00PM. It is closed Mondays & Tuesdays. Daily admission rates are: $7 Adults, $6 Seniors, and $4 College/University Students. The museum is free on Thursdays, and those 18 and younger receive free admission every day, thanks to Prudential Financial.

About the Dubuque Museum of Art

The Dubuque Museum of Art (DuMA), founded in 1874 and accredited by the American Alliance of Museums in 2004, is Iowa's oldest cultural institution. Named a national affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution in 2016, DuMA's mission is to excite, engage and serve diverse communities within the Tri-State area through our collections, exhibitions and educational programs. We connect generations of people to their cultural heritage and exceptional art.

DuMA is located across from Washington Park in historic downtown Dubuque at 7th and Locust Streets.

Safety measures in the museum include the wearing of face masks, social distancing, and an increase in the frequency of cleaning and sanitizing. Masks and hand sanitizer are available for guests. The Glab Family Art Studio and Classroom will be closed until further notice.
